

Twardesky Consulting

Presents

Child Sexual Exploitation Investigation

Date: April 26th, 2023
Time: 8:30 am to 4:30 pm
Where: Washtenaw Police Academy
Address: 4800 E. Huron River Dr., Ann Arbor, MI 48105
Cost: $100.00 per person

Sexually motivated crimes, especially those involving children are an issue that most people prefer not to think about but unfortunately are a reality in all of our communities. Students will gain a better understanding of child sexual exploitation & learn advanced investigative strategies for these horrific crimes. Topics include offender typologies, child interviews, false allegations, victimology, identifying nontraditional evidence & tactics for confronting the offender.

The class focuses on understanding child molesters to more effectively investigate them including proper interview techniques/strategies. Students will leave better equipped to confront the child molester and obtain truthful statements from them. Case studies are used to show how the techniques apply in the real world.

Register online at TwardeskyConsulting.Com

This class is registered with MCOLES for use of PA 302 funds.

Detective Corporal Jim Twardesky has been in law enforcement since 2002 & assigned to the City of Warren PD Special Victims Unit since 2014. He has investigated hundreds of sexual assaults & other violent crimes against children including multiple child homicides & serial sex offenders. A number of his investigations have received extensive media coverage both locally & nationally. He serves as an adjunct instructor for the Macomb Public Service Institute & has lectured about sex crimes & child abuse at colleges, conferences & police academies throughout the State of Michigan. Audiences have included Law Enforcement, CPS workers, Prosecutors, Social Workers & CAC staff.