

DEWOLF AND ASSOCIATES

Presenting

F.T.O. - UPDATE

PROGRAM: This one-day workshop is designed for the experienced FTOs who have completed a basic Training and Evaluation course. The advanced strategies used in this presentation are designed to maximize the effectiveness of those responsible for teaching and training the new employee.

Participants will have the opportunity to exchange and evaluate ideas, problems and solutions. The program features a minimum of lecture and a maximum of student involvement.

Activities will focus on skills required for a legally defensible, valid, reliable, and objective documentation and evaluation using the San José Model of Training.

INSTRUCTOR: DeWolf and Associates: Lt. John Nelson is a Lieutenant with the Novi Police Department. He leads a platoon of patrol officers and four sergeants. In addition to the responsibilities of platoon lieutenant, Lt. Nelson is responsible for policy development and review, and he serves as the Field Training Unit Commander supervising two sergeants and ten Field Training Officers. Lt. Nelson earned his Bachelors of Science degree in 1988 from Eastern Michigan University in Psychology and Criminology. He also earned his Masters degree in Public Administration from E.M.U. in 2008. He is also a graduate of the School of Police Staff and Command at Eastern Michigan University.
