- B. Definition: A grievance under this Agreement is a written dispute, claim, or complaint arising under and during the term of this Agreement and filed by either an authorized representative of, or an employee of the bargaining unit in, the bargaining unit. Grievances are limited to matters of interpretation or application of express provisions of this Agreement.
- C. Time Frames: The parties, recognizing that an orderly grievance procedure is necessary, agree that each step must be adhered to as set forth herein or the grievance is forfeited. All grievances must be filed in writing within twelve (12) working days after the occurrence, or after the occurrence should have been known; otherwise the right to file a grievance is forfeited and no grievance shall be deemed to exist. Time limits provided in the Agreement may be extended by mutual agreement when signed by both parties.
- D. Association Grievance: Matters involving Association grievances shall start at HRM Stage-Step III of the grievance process.
- E. An OPTA MEA-NEA Representative may be present at any step of the grievance procedure provided advance notice is given to the Office of Human Resource Management.
- F. Steps of The Grievance Process:

Oral Stage – Step I

Any employee of the bargaining unit having a complaint shall first take up the matter with their immediate supervisor within five (5) working days of when the complaint arises, and have an Area Representative or Grievance Chair present if desired. If no satisfactory answer or disposition is received within two (2) working days, the complaint shall move to the Written Stage-Step II.

Written Stage – Step II

If the complaint cannot be settled at the oral stage, a written grievance (on the appropriate form) may be filed by any Association Board Representative with the immediate supervisor within five (5) working days after the oral answer is given. The immediate supervisor shall return their answer in writing within five (5) working days after receiving the written grievance.

HRM Stage – Step III

If the written response from the immediate supervisor is unsatisfactory, the Association may appeal the decision in writing to the President's Designee within ten (10) working days, along with the reason it considers the written response unsatisfactory. The President's Designee or their designated representative or their designee shall meet with the Association within ten (10) working days. The grievant and no more than two

(2) Association representatives, and MEA Uniserv Director may be present at this meeting. They will then submit their answer in writing to the Association President, with a copy going to the President's Designee or their designated representative originator of the grievance, within ten (10) working days after said meeting

Arbitration Stage - Step IV

If the President's Designee or their designated representative fails to reply to the grievance or if the decision of the President's Designee or their designated representative is unsatisfactory to the Association, either party may submit the grievance to the American Arbitration Association. Within thirty (30) calendar days after the President's Designee or their designated representative response is due, the Association or the Employer, upon written notice to the other, may submit the grievance to arbitration under and in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties, and any provisions of the arbitrator's decision shall be implemented immediately. The cost of arbitration shall be equally divided between the Association and the Employer and their respective shares shall be paid forthwith upon presentation of a statement for the amount of such cost. The parties shall be responsible for the payment of witnesses called by them except for the grievant (excluding class grievances) and two (2) officers of the Association who will suffer no loss of time or pay for attendance at arbitration proceedings.

G. Power of the Arbitrator

It shall be the function of the arbitrator and they shall be empowered except as their powers are limited below, after due investigation, to make a decision in cases of alleged violation of the articles and sections of this Agreement. They shall have no power to add to, or subtract from, disregard, alter, or modify any terms of this Agreement. They shall not require either party to commit an act, which is contrary to law. The arbitrator shall not have power to award punitive damages.

SECTION 3.2 TIME OF APPEALS

Any grievance not appealed from an answer from one step to the next step of the grievance procedure within specified time limits shall be considered settled on the basis of the last answer and not subject to further review. If a grievance is not answered within the specified time, it may be moved to the next step of the grievance procedure.

Time limits may be extended only by mutual consent of the Employer and the Association.

At each step, the date of the grievance or reply shall be "zero" day with day one (1) starting the following day.

SECTION 3.3 WITHDRAWAL OF CASES

A grievance may be withdrawn without prejudice and, if so withdrawn, all financial liabilities shall be canceled. If the grievance is reinstated, the financial liability shall date only from the date of reinstatement. Where one or more grievances involve a similar issue, those grievances may be withdrawn without prejudice pending the disposition of the appeal of a representative case. In such an event, the withdrawal without prejudice will not affect financial liability.

After a case has been referred to the arbitrator the case may be withdrawn by either party by mutual consent.

SECTION 3.4 PAYMENT OF BACK PAY CLAIMS

If the Employer fails to give an employee of the bargaining unit work to which their seniority (length of service) and ability entitles them, and a written notice of their claim is filed within thirty (30) calendar

SECTION 4.4

SENIORITY OF OFFICERS

Notwithstanding their position on the seniority list, the Association President, Vice President, Grievance Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer, of the local unit shall, in the event of a layoff only, be continued at work at all times provided they can perform any of the work available.

ARTICLE 5.

LAYOFF & RECALL PROCEDURE

SECTION 5.1

LAYOFF

- A. The word "layoff" means a reduction in the working force due to a decrease in work, or financial, or budgeting considerations. Whenever a layoff occurs the following procedure will be followed:
 - 1. The affected employee of the bargaining unit shall be placed into a vacant position within their classification providing the employee of the bargaining unit is qualified, on the basis of qualifications and experience, related to the particular job description in question, as determined by management, to perform the work.
 - a. If more than one vacancy exists in the bargaining unit employee's classification, the employee of the bargaining unit shall have the choice as to which position they will be placed in provided they meet the qualifications of the vacant position.
 - 2. If there is no vacant position within the bargaining unit employee's classification, the employee of the bargaining unit shall have the right to bump an employee of the bargaining unit of lesser seniority within their classification provided they are qualified to perform the work.
 - a. The employee of the bargaining unit shall first attempt to bump the least senior employee of the bargaining unit within their classification. If they do not secure this position they shall continue to attempt to bump within the classification in reverse order of seniority beginning with the least senior employee in their classification.
 - b. Should the employee of the bargaining unit not secure a position in their classification they shall follow the above procedure within the next lower classification. This process may be continued until all possibilities in lower classifications have been exhausted. If the employee of the bargaining unit secures a position in a lower classification they shall receive their current rate of pay for the remainder of the current fiscal year.
 - 3. All subsequent employees of the bargaining unit displaced, as a result of the initial layoff shall follow the procedure in (1) and (2) above.
 - a. When an employee of the bargaining unit is subject to layoff, that employee of bargaining unit shall be notified by the Office of Human Resource Management ten (10) working days in advance of the date the layoff will occur and at that time shall be notified of the position for which they qualify as outlined in (1) and (2) above.
- B. At least ten (10) working days prior to the employee of the bargaining unit receiving their notice of the layoff, the matter shall be discussed between the Office of Human Resource Management and the Association.
- C. When an employee of the bargaining unit accepts a lower classification as a result of the layoff procedure, if mutually agreeable between the supervisor and the employee of the bargaining unit, they shall return to their former position should it be vacated. This option shall be exercised within five (5) working days. If they fail to take the position, the job will immediately be posted under Article 6.00.

- B. At least ten (10) working days prior to the employee of the bargaining unit receiving their notice of the elimination of their position, the matter shall be discussed between the Office of Human Resource Management and the Association.

ARTICLE 6. PROMOTIONS, TRANSFERS, & DEFINITION OF EMPLOYEE CATEGORIES

SECTION 6.1 PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

- A. Posting: If a new position or permanent vacancy occurs in a classification covered by this Agreement and the College determines to fill such opening, the open position shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days using College resources.
- B. A permanent vacancy occurs when an employee of the bargaining unit leaves a position for a reason other than an approved leave. Employees of the bargaining unit who desire such open positions may submit their online employment application, within the posting period. Any such position opening may be filled temporarily by the College until there has been a permanent award of the job to an employee of the bargaining unit.
- C. Transfers:
 1. Voluntary Transfer: A voluntary transfer occurs when an employee of the bargaining unit is placed in another Association position that is the same or lesser position classification. All voluntary transfer requests shall be initiated through the association's executive board. This shall be done when there are rare and extenuating circumstances, and only if the employee of the bargaining unit meets the minimum requirements as stated in the job description. The final decision shall remain with the College.
 2. Involuntary Transfer: An involuntary transfer occurs when an employee of the bargaining unit is placed in another Association position that is the same or lesser position classification at the discretion of the College. If an employee of the bargaining unit is involuntarily transferred, they shall suffer no loss of annual salary resulting from a reduction in wages and/or work for the duration of the assignment.

Employees of the bargaining unit normally assigned to specific locations may expect to enjoy continuity in such assignments. An involuntary transfer shall not take place without prior discussion with the affected employee of the bargaining unit and the Association, in which any objections to the assignment by the employee of the bargaining unit or Association shall be considered before the final decision is made. The final decision shall remain with the College.

Promotion: A promotion is defined as an employee of the bargaining unit being granted or placed in a bargaining unit position that is greater than the current position classification

Employees of the bargaining unit shall be eligible for only one (1) promotion within a twelve (12) month calendar period. New hires are not eligible for promotion or transfer for nine (9) months after their hire date. If the employee of the bargaining unit reverts back to their former position during the trial period, the trial period shall not apply.

When an employee of the bargaining unit is promoted to a higher level, they shall have their wage set at the wage minimum or at 5% per level promoted per hour over their current wage, whichever is greater. When an employee of the bargaining unit moves to a lower level, they shall have their wage reduced by 35 cents per hour per level.

- D. Selection: From among the employees of the bargaining unit who bid on positions and meet the minimum requirements of the posted position, the employer will make a selection and grant one

(1) employee of the bargaining unit a thirty (30) working day trial period. The selection of the employee of the bargaining unit shall be made on the basis of qualifications and ability for a particular position, as determined by the employer. At least the two most senior employees of the bargaining unit who bid on the position and who meet the minimum qualifications for the position shall be interviewed by the hiring supervisor.

- E. Announcement/Denial: The employer will announce the successful applicant, if any, within ten (10) working days after the close of the posting period. All employees of the bargaining unit who are applicants for such openings shall be notified, in writing, of the disposition of their application.
- F. Trial Period: When a bargaining unit employee's job bid is accepted, they will be given a trial period not to exceed thirty (30) working days. If at any time within the trial period, the employee of the bargaining unit is disqualified for the job, they shall be returned to the permanent job they held prior to the accepted bid. During the thirty (30) working day trial period, the employee of the bargaining unit shall have the opportunity to revert back to their former position. The employee of the bargaining unit shall inform in writing to their current supervisor of the decision of voluntary reversion copying the Labor Relations Associate, the Director of Human Resource Services, or designee. Under these circumstances of disqualification and/or voluntary reversion, the Association President will be notified when the position is reposted. If an employee of the bargaining unit reverts back to their former position during the thirty (30) working day trial period, the following procedure will be followed:
1. The position will be reposted internally for a period of three (3) working days.
 2. If internal applicants apply that applied for the initial posting, they shall be considered for the position unless they withdraw from consideration.
 3. The selection process shall be the same as outlined in Section D of this Article.
 4. If no internal applicant wishes to apply for the reposted position, the position may be posted for external candidates.
- G. Temporary Assignment: An employee of the bargaining unit required by the employer to work in a higher classification on a temporary basis for at least three (3) consecutive working days shall be paid at the rate of the higher classification for all days worked in the higher classification. If an employee of the bargaining unit has previously worked at least three (3) days in that same higher position during a consecutive twelve (12) month period, they shall automatically receive the higher classification pay.
- H. External Applications: If there are no qualified applicants for any open and posted position, the College may fill the job at its discretion with an external applicant. No new employee or outside office service representative (Manpower, Kelly Girls, etc.) shall be hired to fill a position while a qualified regular employee of the bargaining unit is on layoff status and elects to take such a position.
- I. Reclassified Positions: An incumbent whose bargaining unit position has been reclassified shall not be required to bid on the reclassified position, provided that they meet the minimum qualifications of the position. Furthermore, the incumbent shall automatically be placed in the reclassified position provided that the aforementioned conditions are met.
- J. It is not the Employer's intent to utilize part-time employees to circumvent the hiring of WCC OPT full-time employees.
- K. Part-time employees shall be kept to a minimum. The Employer retains the right to employ part-time employees on an emergency basis or to fit necessary work schedules.

SECTION 6.2

TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENTS/NON-UNIT PART-TIME EMPLOYEES/SUBSTITUTION LIST

The following provisions stipulate the circumstances under which the employer may hire temporary and non-unit part-time employees.

No employee or group employees who are not full-time employees of the College may be given wages or other benefits superior to wages or benefits that they would have received as full-time employees of the bargaining unit for the same or equal work.

Employees hired to fill such vacancies shall not be covered by the terms and conditions of this Agreement except for rates of pay. These employees of the bargaining unit shall retain all benefits under the terms of this Agreement for a period of one (1) calendar year. At the conclusion of one (1) calendar year, the employee of the bargaining unit shall return to their former position or forfeit all employment rights under the terms of this Agreement.
An interim employee may be hired to fill the vacated position until the employee of the bargaining unit returns to the vacated position.

- G. Interim, temporary, or substitute employees will not be worked overtime when regular employees are available and ready for work.
- H. Employees of the bargaining unit will be given the opportunity to accept overtime work declined by employees of the bargaining unit in other departments if they are available and qualified. The Association will provide the employer with a list of employees of the bargaining unit interested in such overtime work on a quarterly basis.

ASSIGNMENT TO NON-BARGAINING UNIT POSITIONS

All such assignments shall be on a voluntary basis by employees of the bargaining unit if such assignment is for more than one (1) day.

If an employee of the bargaining unit is transferred to a position not included in the unit and is thereafter transferred again to a position within the unit, they shall have accumulated seniority, for up to one year, while working in the position to which they were transferred. SECTION 7.2 JOB DESCRIPTIONS

- A. Position descriptions developed by College management shall serve as guidelines and be in effect until such time as College management develops new job descriptions. Job descriptions shall be subject to review by the employee of the bargaining unit and their immediate supervisor at the time of the bargaining unit employee's annual performance review. This shall not restrict the ability of College management to create new positions or make classification changes or job assignments within the bargaining unit, except as prohibited by and/or subject to the conditions of this Agreement.
- B. The College shall share with the Association President a copy of all new, updated, or reclassified bargaining unit jobs prior to posting. If the Association wishes to respond, it must do so in writing within three (3) working days after receipt of notice.

SECTION 7.3 PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL
