HAVE YOU

HEARD?

PRIMO SMART SEARCH IS THE BAILEY LIBRARY'S NEW SYSTEM!

Do you have Library Resource
Links embedded into your Blackboard site?

Have you been using the old One
Search in your classes?

If you answered "yes" to either question, bring your laptop and join the Librarians of the Bailey Library during hands-on sessions to check and update your links.

If you want to get ahead of the game with Primo Smart Search, be sure to check out this week's Primo-focused sessions.

INTRODUCING

Primo
Smart Search

Meet Primo Smart Search, the Bailey Library's new database discovery layer!

| 2:00pm – 3:00pm Diversity | Zoom | The NRCA Program: Supporting Students Who Have Been Formerly Incarcerated (Crystal; Eric Lyte; Eric Reed, Dean-Diversity, Equity & Inclusion) At 34%, Washtenaw County has one of the state's highest recidivism rates compared to 26% state-wide. We know that education and subsequent employment is the number one intervention in altering a recidivism rate. Thus, WCC has partnered with the Navigation: Returning Citizens AmeriCorps Program (NRCA) program through Eastern Michigan University to enhance postsecondary access to individuals who were formerly incarcerated. In this session, attendees will learn about how the NRCA program situates 18-22 AmeriCorps members to serve as Navigation Coaches across Washtenaw County, including a Coach to serve WCC students. Staff and faculty will gain valuable insight and resources on how to support and connect individuals who may be returning citizens in their pursuit of postsecondary degree attainment. https://wccnet-edu.zoom.us/j/86950310930?pwd=SVRicVJoRE5jL1JZWG9lVXZBcStlLQT09 Meeting ID: 869 5031 0930 Passcode: 114087 Contact tlc.staff@wccnet.edu if you have any issues logging in. |

(Jessica Hale, Prof Faculty-Academic Skills; Kevin Lindsey, Prof Faculty-Public Service Careers; Grace Fama, Manager-Student Success Initiatives) Have you heard about the Alpha Scholars program? Alpha Scholars is a career-focused learning community focused on new (to any college), full-time, degree seeking (associates degree) students. Alpha Scholars students dedicate time to defining academic and career goals, enjoying fun and educational experiences, working with peers and leveraging the rich academic and personal support WCC offers. This year, we had 235 students join our second cohort of Alpha Scholars students and we anticipate we will have our first Alpha Scholars graduates in May. Come learn about how these Alpha Scholars students are progressing and what's in store for the Winter term. https://wccnet-edu.zoom.us/j/84812708698?pwd=bDZpL1BMVFVBVdnJmRS9sSnZpVFY0UT09 Meeting ID: 848 1270 8698 Passcode: 195565 Contact tlc.staff@wccnet.edu if you have any issues logging in. |

| 12:30pm – 1:30pm Teaching | Zoom | Fonts, Colors and Course Design that Sticks (Michelle Westerdale, Instructional Designer) Do you ever feel like your students don't read your words? You carefully craft instructions and they skim over them entirely! Are you typing in invisible ink, you might wonder? In this interactive session, we'll explore the basics of visual design and layout in Blackboard course sites to create a clear path for students. Our goal is to help you get your message across more effectively while considering mobile devices, accessibility and Blackboard. https://wccnet-edu.zoom.us/j/84421652329?pwd=dy9uRExWQ1ZEd3ImLzFFZlFYUytHQ09 Meeting ID: 844 2165 2329 Passcode: 099139 Contact tlc.staff@wccnet.edu if you have any issues logging in. |
| 12:30pm – 1:30pm Teaching | GM 332 | Collaboration: Visual, Writing, Media, Broadcasting, & Performing Arts (Michael Naylor, Prof Faculty-Performing Arts) While in real-world applications, artistic and media production disciplines are largely integrated (artists, creative writers, animators, performers, philosophers, activists, those with diverse intelligences and abilities, or from diverse cultures), in Higher Ed. we generally have some ground to make up. This session is a call for interdisciplinary or cross-curricular team-building, beginning at this in-service discussion. Such interdisciplinary collaboration is essential to sustainability for most of our disciplines that are currently under-enrolled, and in need of a collaborative vision. Please Join us! |
| BREAK – 1:30pm-2:00pm | | |
| 2:00pm – 3:00pm Teaching | Zoom | Good Better Best (Ann Heise, Prof Faculty-Life Science; Tom Zimmerman, Prof Faculty-English; Sandy McCarthy, Prof Librarian) This session is for anyone whose students are writing research papers. We track how a Bio 101 student's "Scientific Method" paper goes from okay to fantastic. Sandy McCarthy helps the student find an appropriate scientific article to support the student paper, then Tom Zimmerman works with the student to improve organization, word choice, and clarity. https://wccnet-edu.zoom.us/j/84447935198 Contact tlc.staff@wccnet.edu if you have any issues logging in. |

Everyone's reason for coming to WCC is different. And yet, the results are so similar. The reason may be to start a new career path, or strengthen an existing one. To establish a foundation for further academic study at a four-year college. To fulfill a dream, or follow a passion to a very rewarding outcome. Whatever the reason, the result is always a new and interesting chapter in a life story. We all have our something "next," and WCC is a means to achieve it. We teach, we encourage, we guide, we support, we inspire. Life has many chapters. We're here to help you start your next one.
