NEWS YOU CAN USE

We can't believe our misfortune, ! Publication of today's Washtenaw Weekly fell one day shy of being able to lead with a good April Fool's Day prank! Looks like 2027 is the next year April 1 falls on a Thursday, so we have a little time to plan something good!

In the meantime: Don't be a fool, register early for Summer and Fall semester to get the schedule you want!

Undecided? This Could Help!

Still haven't picked a major? We have something that may be able to help you find the academic program that's perfect for you!

A WCC Showcase Series will be held throughout the month of April and feature the diverse academic programs available in the college's different divisions. During each session, you'll get an overview of programs, resources and other professional tips to help navigate college and career pathways.

All sessions will take place from 5-6 p.m. on the following dates:

- April 5: Business and Computer Technologies
- April 7: Online Learning
- April 12: Health Sciences
- April 14: Advanced Technologies and Public Services Careers
- April 19: Humanities, Social, and Behavioral Sciences
- April 21: Math, Sciences, and Engineering Technology

Register today to join the sessions that interest you. Each with include a Q&A following the presentation.

Spring Career Fair on April 8

Looking for a job? WCC's annual Spring Career Fair will include more than 80 businesses looking to hire for open positions. Morning (10 a.m.-noon) and afternoon (1-3 p.m.) sessions will have different employers.

A list of employers and registration are available online. That website also includes the ability to register for workshops that will be held each day leading up to the career fair to help attendees maximize their experience.

The event is free and open to the public, so help us spread the word!

Social/Support Group for Adult Students

Are you an adult student looking to connect with others? A new social/support group geared toward returning and adult learners is in the works!

This will be a space to make friends, work through similar challenges and connect to campus life. Your input on this interest form can help in the formation of the group. The more you share, the better the group will be!

You can also request to join the WCC Returning and Adult Learners Facebook Group for group engagement. Questions? Email Success Coach Brian Price at brianprice@wccnet.edu.

Student Art Show Open House

Celebrate the work of your fellow WCC students at an informal Student Art Show Open House from 4-6 p.m. today (Thursday, March 31) on the second floor of the Student Center.

WCC visual and digital media arts faculty will be there to share information about the college's art programs, light refreshments will be served and art show award announcements will be shared via video. (Watch for the awards to be added to the virtual gallery shortly after the event.)

Self-Management for Artists 101

Be Now Media and WCC invite you to join virtual arts industry panel discussions titled "Self-Management for Artists 101" at noon on Monday, April 4 and Wednesday, April 6.

Learn how to build a music- or arts-based career from some of the most successful artists, educators and entrepreneurs to come out of Southeast Michigan. Each session will feature different panelists, so plan to attend both to hear all perspectives!

Join both sessions using Zoom meeting ID 814 5674 5006 and passcode 442511.

WCC Jazz Combo Performance

Check out the WCC Jazz Combo as it celebrates National Jazz Appreciation Month with a live performance from 5-7:30 p.m. on Friday, April 1 on the patio of the Ypsilanti Food Co-Op.

The combo, led by WCC faculty member Steve Somers, will perform in Ypsilanti monthly this spring and summer. Every performance will celebrate a theme and include a speaker and special guests.

WCC World Music Event

WCC's Music Appreciation: Our World (MUS 180) instructors invite the entire college community to attend a virtual World Music Event with special guest Kyle Canjar from 6-7 p.m. on Monday, April 4. Canjar, a professional musician and educator, will discuss the cultural and historical significance of Brazilian music. No registration is required to join the Zoom event.

(See more music-focused events in the 'A Look Back' section below.)

FREE WCC Student
Group Swim Lessons

Summer's Coming: Get Water Ready

The WCC Health & Fitness Center is hosting a pair of free group swim lessons on Saturday, April 9.

A 10 a.m. "Beginner" class is intended for those students who are comfortable in the water, but want to learn to swim better. An 11 a.m. "Water Shy" class is for those who are not comfortable in the water and want to learn to be safe and feel comfortable while learning to swim.

For more information or to register, call 734-975-9950 or visit the Member Services desk.

Act Now for a Fall Scholarship

Starting in August, 10 WCC students will have scholarships of $3,800+ per semester and an opportunity to get resume-building experience at the Washtenaw Voice.

The Voice is WCC's student news publication. The team includes reporters, editors, photo- and videographers, graphic designers and digital specialists who publish at washtenawvoice.com and produce a regular print edition, available on campus.

Applications for Fall 2022 scholarships are now open. Learn more online.
