

Parallelism Quiz

Rewrite the following sentences to make them parallel. There are several possible correct answers.

1. An adviser familiarizes students with the school and how to select appropriate classes.
2. To contact the professor, most students send an e-mail, leave a message on the answering machine, or a note can be dropped into the faculty mailbox.
3. At many universities, plagiarism can result in suspension or even being expelled from school.
4. The teacher is responsible for preparing lessons, taking attendance, correcting papers, and the computation of final grades.

1.

An adviser familiarizes students with the school and helps them select appropriate classes.

An adviser familiarizes students with the school and the selection of appropriate classes.

2.

To contact the professor, most students send an e-mail, leave a message on the answering machine, or a drop a note into the faculty mailbox.

3.

At many universities, plagiarism can result in suspension or even expulsion from school.

At many universities, plagiarism can result in being suspended or even expelled from school.

4.

The teacher is responsible for preparing lessons, taking attendance, correcting papers, and computing final grades.